Workshop Proposal

“More Progress, Less Crisis”

Abstract

How can we actually bridge that gap from strategy to execution? Like immediately. When an advisor tells us to be ruthless with our focus, how do we weigh up the trade offs? What is the no.1 thing holding us back and how do we manage that?

This interactive workshop leverages a lifetime of experience, working across multiple continents, leading early and late stage tech companies as well as time served in the NZ Army.

You'll learn how to use simple and effective tools enabling any team to focus on what's important, lifting enthusiasm, while reducing friction on the journey.

Suitable for 6+ participants at any level of leadership with a list of initiatives that need prioritisation

Learning Objectives

1. Communication level up, Radical Candor
2. A fresh approach to strategy
3. Impact / Execution framework to prioritise effectively, not ruthlessly
4. Surfacing the real issues that will hold you back, safely
5. Unlocking genuine group ownership

Deliverables

1. 1:1 Calls with participants pre and post session
2. 6 – 8 hour workshop
3. Interactive with anonymous voting throughout session
4. All voting results and agreed actions documented on that day
5. An execution plan ready for immediate implementation.
